Non-Compliance

If a student arrives at school without the proper uniform, school staff will inquire about the reason for the discrepancy and document the incident. If this happens, the staff will communicate with the student's parent or caregiver via letter to provide a gentle reminder. School has spare uniform should this be required & a supply of nearly new uniform to purchase

If the student continues to arrive without the correct uniform, the staff will contact the parent or caregiver by phone to discuss the issue brand may request that they bring the uniform to school. If the student repeatedly fails to comply with uniform rules, the parent or caregiver will be asked to attend a meeting with senior school leaders and members of the governing body to address the issue.

Reasonable adjustments:

The School is open to considering reasonable requests for alterations to the School Uniform, such as those based on genuine religious requirements or for children who require reasonable adjustments. Additionally, we welcome requests for reasonable adjustments for children with specific special educational needs and/or disabilities, including those with sensory needs.
